SHERRI BURRELL JOINS OTHER LEADERS IN DISABILITY MANAGEMENT AT 2014 NWCDC BREAKOUT SESSION

Session to focus on going beyond the psychosocial factors in successfully returning injured workers to the workplace

Centennial, CO — October 28, 2014 — Sherri Burrell, Head of Operations of Briotix Inc., has been selected to present at 2014 National Workers' Compensation and Disability Conference, scheduled for November 19 through November 21, 2014 in Las Vegas, NV. Sherri will be featured in a conference session entitled "Overcoming Psychosocial Barriers to Recovery: It's Not Just a Theory Anymore" that will explore how cutting-edge behavioral modification programs that effectively address these psychosocial barriers can help you identify at-risk injured workers, facilitate faster returns-to-work, and promote reintegration into life-role activities. The session is scheduled for Thursday, November 20, 2014 from 8:30 to 9:45 a.m.

Sherri Burrell has been working in the field of injury prevention and physical rehabilitation for over 20 years. Sherri is currently the Head of Operations and the Costco National Account Manager with Briotix. She has extensive training and experience in functional capacity evaluation, work hardening and conditioning, job analysis, and onsite injury prevention. Sherri holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Athletic Training, from Berry College, and a Master of Science degree in Sports Medicine, from Georgia State University. She will be joined in the session by Carrie Freeland, Integrated Leave Department at Costco Wholesale and Ruth Estrich, Chief Strategy Officer, MedRisk.
