INCONSISTENT PROCESSES

Inconsistency in accommodations in your return-to-work process can expose your company to regulatory measures. Our Accommodations Consulting service delivers the documented consistency to minimize regulatory concerns while setting expectations with the employee to structure a collaborative approach.

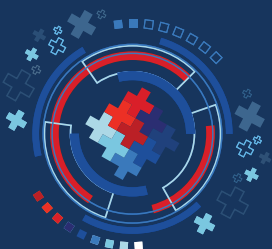

GAPS IN EXPERTISE/COMMUNICATION

Despite training and the best intentions of supervisory staff, it can be difficult to coordinate with the entire team. This can lead to missed expectations and slower recovery. Briotix' Health's providers are experts in coordinating communication across an entire team to ensure concise and thorough solutions are delivered.

INCONSISTENT DOCUMENTATION

If you aren't keeping consistent and accurate documentation of each case, you are inviting trouble in the form of accusations of discrimination or inequitable treatment. Our Accommodations Consulting service ensures every step is concisely documented to demonstrate compliance with doctor's orders.
